News from the Principal

Slavens K-8 School: Providing a rich academic experience for all children.
October 15th, 2009

Mark your calendars!

10/16 Early Release @ 12:00

10/22 Slavens Chipotle Night (5-8pm)

10/28 No Classes for Students

10/29-30 Fall Break - No School

Please plan to dine at Chipotle next Thurs. night, Oct. 22nd from 5-8. Fifty percent of the proceeds go to Slavens! Please look for your flyer in your child's Thursday folder today! You must show the attached flyer to Chipotle in order for Slavens to get the credit.

Center for Early Education Carnival—This year we have students at the Center for Early Education at Knight (an Early Childhood Education—ECE class). They are holding their Fall Carnival on Saturday, October 24th from 11:00 to 2:00 and have invited any Slavens students and parents to attend. Please see the attached flyer for more information.

Parent/ Teacher Conferences—We hope you have signed up for a time with your child's teacher for Parent/ Teacher Conferences on November 9th or 10th. Our Specials teachers will be here those evenings if you would like to visit with them. Mrs. Badger will also be in the library and it is ok for parents to drop off students during their conference time for some read aloud books and/or check out time. We look forward to seeing you then!

Slavens' Night At DU! - Mark your calendars! The next Slavens' Night at the Men's DU Basketball Game will be Thursday, November 19 at 7pm. Discounted tickets are only $6. Randomly selected students will be able to participate in locker room tours and shooting competitions during timeouts. The Middle School Choir will sing the National Anthem! There will be an entire section reserved for Slavens' families. Just fill out the attached flyer and drop it off in the office with your check made payable to the University of Denver. Your tickets will then be delivered to you. Questions? contact Amy Soltes at soltes@q.com.

Lost And Found Clean Up - Attention Parents and Students! Please check Lost and Found to see if you might be the owner of an article of clothing, lunch bags, etc. Small items such as jewelry, keys, etc. are in the office. All items unclaimed will be donated to Goodwill.

Fundraising At Slavens - Have a great idea for a fundraiser? Wondering what is planned for the rest of the year? Want to better understand how new fundraisers are approved? Please see the attached letter explaining how the Fundraising Oversight Committee (FOC) operates and their calendar of events. Questions? Call Annie Humphrey at 303-733-3838 or ahumphrey@comcast.net

Thinking about starting your holiday shopping? Go to btfe.com (boxtops for education) and shop on-line at stores like Justice, Gap, Best Buy, Expedia, Disney, Piperlime, Banana Republic, Target, just to name a few, and earn money for Slavens!

Destination Imagination -we need just a few more students to make teams! - Slavens would like to form teams for the 2009/2010 school year of Destination Imagination (DI). This program fosters creativity and critical thinking skills as it develops team work, collaboration and leadership. DI is available for any grade K-12. We will sign up as teams begin to form. If your child would be interested in joining a grade level team, please let me know via email at melissa_hatchett@dpsk12.org. To have a successful after school DI program, we also need team managers. Please also let me know if you are interested in helping Slavens students gain new competence and enthusiasm for solving real-world problems by leading a group.

Ms. Barnett is now teaching full-time at Slavens! - See the attached flyer to read all about it. Our kids are enjoying her Music and Musical Theater classes in large part because of your donations to FOSS. Contributions to FOSS allow us to go "Beyond the Basics" and bring the extras to our kids at Slavens. Every donation counts, especially yours. To donate to this year's campaign, just go to <http://slavens.dpsk12.org>. Thanks so much for your great support!
