Dear Slavens Elementary School Parents,

My name is Erik Johnson and I am the head women's basketball coach at the University of Denver. I have two girls at Slavens Elementary School (Daly is in second grade and Avery is in kindergarten). Women's basketball at DU is great family entertainment, and I want to make you aware of one of the best sports entertainment values in town.

As a member of our "Super Hooper" Kids Club, your child will get a season ticket to every one of our home games, be a ball-kid at a game, be a pen-pal with a player, get a t-shirt and get to go down to the floor to high-five the players at every game. All of this is just $20.

Our players are unbelievable role-models for youngsters and absolutely love to meet the Super Hoopers before and after our games. Magness Arena is one of the best venues in the nation to watch college basketball. It has a big-time feel, but every seat is a good one.

Our team will be fun and exciting to watch this season and we hope we can welcome you to the DU Women's Basketball family.

Parents of Super Hoopers can buy a reduced-price season ticket for games as well ($60 for 15 home games). Please find the sign-up sheets attached to this.

We play an exhibition game here against Regis on November 7 and our regular season opens on November 13 vs. the University of Wyoming at DU in Magness Arena.

I hope to see you around Slavens soon and in the stands at our games too!

Best regards,
